Mentoring Session for Career planning and Entrepreneurship by Winston Paul, Master Trainer and Motivator on April 12th 2021

Objective of the Event:

In recent decades, career development has seen a shift in the way it is approached. Traditionally, it was up to an organization to ensure that its students had the skills to meet the company's long-term goals. Now, however, students advocate that they are and should be responsible for their own career development. This shift has changed the way that organizations handle career development. Career development is viewed today as developing entrepreneur ship skills.
