8. Experiences and Output of the Session/ Benefit in terms of learning/Skill/Knowledge:

- The guest lecture on employability skills by J.Arun Kumar with his handful of experience along with his skills development lecture motivated students to think of their career and helped them to redesign their destination.
- The demand of skilled employees and the lack of skills among students are clearly identified.
- This session was a eye opener for the students. They came to know what skills they need to learn and the areas they need to develop to own a corporate job.
- Faculty could get a board perspective how to train the students for their corporate career
- Guest lectures help in recognizing the responsibility among the students and make them confident to work in a learning environment.
- Describe the scope of job market by identifying the special skills with the activities and identify expectations for career advancement.

9. Student Feedback:

- The session on employability skills was an eye opener to all of us as we could clearly identify where we are.
- The special guidelines for the HR students motivated me to choose HR as my Specialization in the Second Year.
- Till today my idea was to grab the job after my MBA, but today I clearly understood not just grabbing a job what's the exact way to form my career path.
- The slide on requirement of the professionals in several areas with specific skills made me think where I am lacking, and will defiantly try to fill up my gaps to form a best career path.
- The way sir differentiated between a job and a job with career growth made me think what to do after my MBA to shine in my Career.
