"Enhancement of Employability Skills for Management Graduates in the Perspective of Covid-19 Pandemic”

1. About the Program/Event:

National level Webinar was organized by our MBA department, on 8th July, 2020 on the topic "Enhancement of Employability Skills for Management Graduates in the Perspective of Covid-19 Pandemic". The resource person Dr. Yarlagadda Srinivasulu, Professor, Pondicherry Central University. Around 700 members participated in this event; Participants have attended the online sessions across the country. The program has witnessed the overwhelm response from the participants. Registrations have comes from nearly twenty states of the country.

2. Objective of the Event: FDP

The objective of the webinar is to have an opportunity to explore the concept of “learning and training anywhere, anytime”, an idea central to the concept of lifelong learning. This in turn requires examination of a range of issues such as how technical, and effectively we prepare or to support new ways of working in the face of disruptors like a pandemic, and how quickly we can organize digital education and training and mobilize teachers and trainers to maintain services to learners. This E-discussion seeks to glean insights into innovative practices in education and training, particularly those that are embracing technology to promote skills development. The E-discussion will also allow us to consider the new challenges emerging in the current context as we move to online forms of learning and skills development, including how we ensure that no one is excluded from new forms of learning and training. This emphasizes us in filling the gaps and upgrading our self to the corporate style of learning and inculcating the behavior concepts.
